More information

A Community Visiting Scheme Volunteers visit carers in their own home and provide them with the opportunity to have a break, visiting their friends, having a trip out or going to a medical appointment. The volunteer sits with the person being cared for. There is no personal care involved. Visits are normally weekly or fortnightly and last a couple of hours at a time to suit both the volunteer and the person being visited. Volunteers are paid travelling expenses and training and support is provided.

Easingwold Community Minibus

EDCCA run assisted regular trips out every week to various destinations. The bus is available for hire to community and voluntary groups.

EDCCA also provides information on a wide range of local services and health and welfare matters and sign-posting to specialist agencies if required. We provide a short term Wheelchair Hire Service

Donations and legacies for the Association are always very welcome and can be gift aided.
